TELEPHONIC HEARING BEFORE HONORABLE JUDGE WALKER - 7/30/2014

1 individuals are located, they were designated by your 2 client as custodians of documents. You are creating 3 the impression that you and your client are playing a 4 cat-and-mouse game with respect to the location of 5 these individuals, and that frankly is the kind of 6 conduct that is likely to prompt an order that would 7 be directly applicable to you and to your client and 8 the disobedience of which could lead to proceedings,
9 perhaps as serious as contempt-of-court proceedings.

10 MR. LAU: Well, all I can say in response to 11 that, Your Honor, is our conduct to date, we believe, 12 has been in compliance with all applicable orders in 13 this case, including the discovery protocol and 14 including Judge Legge's order of May 1, 2013.

15 JUDGE WALKER: All right.

16 Ms. Rosenberg, let me turn back to you. I
17 have a couple of points that come to mind.

18 MS. ROSENBERG: Yes, Your Honor.

19 JUDGE WALKER: Why did you not, on behalf of 20 your client, name JDI as a party to this litigation
21 upon receiving the notice of acquisition and merger
22 that was described by Mr. Carson first in 2012 and 23 then in 2013?

24 MS. ROSENBERG: Your Honor, I can't speak
25 fully to that, but I can you tell you that we don't
